

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (cont.)

Kentucky Utilities Company

Fuel Contract Administrator, Lexington, Kentucky; May 1978 - January 1986

Administration of the Company's coal, oil, rail, and natural gas agreements.

Responsible for the annual, five, and ten year fuel budget and forecast.

NewEra Coal Resources

Manager-Distribution and Services, Lexington, Kentucky; February 1975 - April 1978

Acted as liaison between the sales and marketing and accounting sections.

Directly charged with blending coals to meet order specifications, issuing purchase orders, administering coal supply and transportation agreements, and preparing export documents and cargo manifests for metallurgical coal being shipped to overseas customers.

Coopers & Lybrand

Staff Accountant, Lexington, Kentucky; June 1973 - January 1975

Assisted in audits of medium sized clients.

Prepared tax returns for individuals and corporate clients.

EDUCATION

Western Kentucky University – Bowling Green, KY

BS Accounting; Double Minor Business Administration and Economics 1972

University of Kentucky – Lexington, KY

MS Accounting 1973

○ KEY PROJECTS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

A Resource Data International (RDI) study in 1999 noted that Cinergy ranked 4th out of 140 companies for managing fuel purchases.

Successfully lowered fuel costs for Cincinnati Gas & Electric from 1986 to 1994 by 26% and lowered fuel costs for Cinergy from 1994 to 2001 by 19%.

Belong to and have served in various officer capacities with the Cincinnati Coal Exchange, the Lexington Coal Exchange and the Southern Coals Conference. In addition, have participated in the Eastern Fuel Buyers' Conference, have served on the Fossil and Synthetic Fuels Committee of the Edison Electric Institute, served as the Company's representative for the Center for Energy and Economic Development (CEED) and have authored several papers for the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI).

Have made numerous presentations to the Cincinnati Coal Exchange, Lexington Coal Exchange, Southern Coals Conference, the North Carolina Coal Institute, Coal Marketing Days' Conference, Coal Marketing Strategies Conference, National Mining Association, and various other industry and trade meetings.